Terms and Conditions

National Counselling and Psychotherapy Society (NCPS) Registrants working with The Ben Raemers Foundation programme agree to abide by the terms and conditions laid out below alongside the Society's Code of Ethics and terms of membership.

These terms and conditions must be agreed to before you see any of The Ben Raemers Foundation clients and before your listing is updated for potential Ben Raemers Foundation clients to find you on the register.

1. I agree to provide a free assessment to all The Ben Raemers Foundation clients (this will either be over the phone, online or face-to-face)
2. I agree to a maximum fixed rate of £50 per session, or less if my usual sessional charge is less than this fee when working with The Ben Raemers Foundation clients. This rate will apply to at least the first six sessions. Any change in session price after the first six sessions will need to be explained to the client and agreed upon from the outset.
3. I agree to manage session payments with The Ben Raemers Foundation directly – I understand clients are not responsible for the first six session payments.
4. I will check that any potential clients have a Ben Raemers Foundation P/O number.
5. When requested by the NCPS and/or The Ben Raemers Foundation, I agree to supply anonymised information about any clients that have come via The Ben Raemers Foundation e.g. main reason for seeking counselling, age range, gender etc...The NCPS and The Ben Raemers Foundation can conduct anonymised surveys and ask for anonymised data at any time (please note that any anonymised data requested will not compromise client confidentiality/indicate a client's identity in any way).
6. I agree to inform the NCPS if I no longer wish to work with The Ben Raemers Foundation clients and understand that I will no longer be visible to those using The Ben Raemers Foundation filter on the NCPS register. Failure to do so may negatively impact people who are looking for therapy.
7. I agree to read the below documents and complete the following CPD course from The Ben Raemers Foundation. This is to ensure I have a basic understanding of The Ben Raemers Foundation and the culture in which potential clients operate.
